

We are looking for full-time interns to join our Stockholm office

Norvestor is looking for final year bachelor's students or penultimate year master's students to join our Stockholm team for a full-time internship with a three to six months duration and great possibilities to extend. We offer an opportunity to experience the private equity industry firsthand and develop skills to pursue a career in investments or entrepreneurship. You will be taking significant responsibility in identifying, acquiring and developing high-growth companies across the Nordic region.

The internship is a great opportunity to learn about private equity, and work closely with, and be coached by, the Norvestor team.

The internship will commence in Autumn 2025.

Key responsibilities

- Prepare research and analyses for sourcing new investments and development of our portfolio companies
- Financial modelling and company valuation
- Preparation of external and internal presentations and other material
- Attend meetings and discussions with various external advisors as well as with existing and prospective portfolio companies
- Assist deal teams with internal processes

What we are looking for

- Third-year bachelor's students in business/economics or engineering with a strong academic record
- Positive attitude, highly motivated, and diligently in a team-oriented environment
- Strong analytical, commercial and communication capabilities
- Relevant experience from previous internships in e.g. investment banking, management consulting, private equity, or other relevant positions and extracurricular activities
- Fluent in English. Proficiency in other Nordic languages is considered an advantage

Please submit your application by 7 February by clicking this link, containing a brief cover letter, CV, and grade transcripts. We urge you to apply as early as possible as we review applications on an on-going basis.

About Norvestor

Norvestor is a leading private equity firm that has partnered with Nordic businesses for nearly three decades. We typically invest in service companies with revenues in the range of €25–300 million, often where digitalisation and available technology can be utilised to make sustainable efficiency gains and create real value for clients and society.

We are convinced that businesses that contribute positively to society and have sustainable business models will build long-term value. We want our contribution to be positive – not just because we believe acting responsibly leads to superior investment results and allow us to attract the best talent, but also because we are convinced it is the right thing to do.

The team comprises 51 professionals based in Oslo, Helsinki, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Berlin and Luxembourg. Norvestor has completed more than 93 buyouts and more than 500 add-on transactions. Today 31 Norvestor portfolio companies employ more than 30 thousand employees.
